Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.
1 Timothy 4:12 (NIV)

When someone’s referred to as a “good example,” most likely that person is middle-aged or older. We tend to look to those who are older than we are for inspiration, figuring they have more experience and wisdom. That is not necessarily true; there are plenty of old fools around.

Don’t rule yourself out of the good-example population because you’re young.
Being a good example has nothing to do with age and everything to do with how you live your life. You can be a good example in kindergarten, providing you don’t run with scissors.

You don’t have to be a Goody Two-Shoes, but you should try to live your life with courage and fairness and faith. If you can do that long enough, you’re on your way toward becoming a good example. A good reputation opens doors that might otherwise stay closed to you.

Pamela L. McQuade and Toni Sortor, 365 Daily Devotions for Students (Uhrichsville, OH: Barbour Books, 2013).

Thank you for worshipping with us today. Please fold and tear at perforation your “Get Connected”
