Changed

Besides disunity, Paul had learned of other problems in the Corinthian church.
Believers were taking each other to court and having sex with prostitutes, and a man in the church was living with his stepmother. Rather than being ashamed, the church was proud of its “enlightened attitude,” but Paul was shocked—even the pagans in Corinth wouldn’t tolerate that, he said. The church needed to stop all association with this man in order to bring him to repentance.

Our bodies are made for the Lord, Paul said, and God cares about them. He purchased us with the blood of His Son, and He will raise our bodies just as He raised Jesus from the dead. Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who lives in us. For all these reasons, Paul said, “Run from sexual sin!” (1 Corinthians 6:18).

And if we haven’t? Then the beauty of forgiveness and the power of God to change us goes to work. Within the Corinthian church were believers who had previously lived sexually immoral lives and committed other sins. “Such were some of you,” Paul wrote. “But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God” (1 Corinthians 6:11 ESV).

through Revelation* (Grand Rapids, MI:
